

A man wearing a yellow and red life vest and green shorts stands on a beach, holding a grab bag. The background shows the ocean and a blue sky with clouds.

“We’re just feeling lucky to be here”

“We were in Grafton Passage when we saw just how fast accidents can happen. While retrieving the anchor, a wave hit us and suddenly we were in the water. Now my grab bag of safety equipment and EPIRB is always within easy reach.”

- Robert McMurray Brinsmead

To read the full story visit www.msq.qld.gov.au

Real
boaties
Real lives

Have quick access to the right safety gear and know how to use it.
You're the skipper, you're responsible.

Queensland Government
Maritime Safety Queensland